

Dear Children,
You are free to imagine your dream and future.
It will become true if you make an effort to be true.
You are completely free no matter who you are
And where you are from.
Please, don't forget.

Rosa is an artist, writer, and gardener, committed to sustaining a harmonious balance between humans and the natural world. Rosa's art draws inspiration from natural materials and environments, manifested in various forms, mediums, and scales.
